High School To Get New Track

Asphalt Surface To Cover Cinders

Antioch Community High School will be getting a new, all-weather running track.

Liberty Asphalt Co. of Grayslake expects to start paying the old cinder track soon, maybe next week.

The company was awarded the contract at last Thursday's meeting of the ACHS Board of Education. It will cost $22,812.

"They're going to get a nice track," said Larry Frederick, a vice-president of Liberty Asphalt. "They have put a lot of thought into it."

The special mixture of asphalt is softer than a black-top highway and makes a good surface for running.

IN OTHER action at last Thursday's meeting, the board decided to hold a public hearing on its budget at its Aug. 22 meeting. The tentative 1974-75 budget will be placed on display in the high school's general office on July 19.

Letters were received from five area legislators, expressing their support for full funding by the state of the current educational commitment.

The board approved issuance of up to $250,000 in tax anticipation warrants to be used if tax monies are not received by September.

THE BOARD employed Jay Bratton to teach mathematics, Linda Therry, home economics; Madeleine Yerke, English; Clifford Hanke as a bus driver, and Jane Kleinschmidt in the guidance department.

A letter of resignation was received from Barbara Schofield who has served as Dean of Girls. Her husband has accepted a teaching position in Missouri. Gayle Karhanek, currently on the staff, will assume the position of Dean.

The board decided to buy 13 bus tires from Antioch Firestone at the bid of $782.60.

A special meeting was set for Thursday, July 18, to discuss the tentative budget, student and staff manuals, and bids on tennis courts.

Medical-Dental Clinic Approved

By BETSY ROSSEN

Dr. John Boarini's petition to change his property from multiple family to commercial zoning was okayed Monday night by the village board. Plans have been tentatively drawn for a medical-professional clinic of colonial design to be constructed on the site, 800 to 810 Main St.

This action followed the recommendations of both the planning commission and the zoning board of appeals. The commission gave these reasons for its recommendation:

1. Community need for additional medical facilities as stated by citizens in recent surveys.

2. Property is contiguous to existing commercial zoning.

3. The clinic would lower the population density from the existing multiple family zoning on Main St.

SEEPAGE PROBLEMS in the Oakwood Knolls and Village Green subdivisions will be studied via television equipment, to be rented by the village. The utilities committee reported to the board that goals would be set, a daily log kept, and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) informed of progress.

The north water tower paint job will be turpouise when completed, scheduled for the end of this week. The south tower, due to its location next to the municipal parking lot, must remain aluminum. A special paint must be used that turns to powder before dripping to the pavement.

A new weed ordinance, replacing all prior ordinances and agreements, was passed by the board. The new provisions give the village the authority to enter private property to cut weeds.

Antioch will join in a contract with the Lake County Investigative Services, a federally-funded program. The village's share in the venture will be $960 per year, to be paid on a month-by-month basis with a cancellation clause in the yearly contract.

PARK AVE. HAS been added to the 1974 street resurfacing program, awarded to Liberty

Asphalt at the June 17 board meeting. Improvement of the lift station located at Rte. 173 and McMillen Drive as also given board approval.

'Sound of Music' Held Over

PM & L's production of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, "The Sound of Music," has been so well received that the show is being held over for an additional performance.

To the two remaining scheduled shows, on Friday and Saturday, July 5 and 6, will be added one more performance on Sunday, July 7.

Curtain time at the PM & L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch, is 8:30 on all three nights. Be sure to call 395-9702 for your reservations. Do this soon, as the show has been playing consistently to heavily subscribed and sold-out audiences.

"The Sound of Music" has virtually universal appeal. Based on Maria Augusta Trapp's book, "The Trapp Family Singers," the musical production's story, setting and songs range over a wide variety of themes. Among them are the beauty of the Austrian mountains, brought out in such songs as, "The Sound of Music," "Edelweiss," and "The Lonely Goatherd;" a convent full of singing nuns, who bring us numbers like "Maria" and "Climb Every Mountain;" and the charm and excitement of children learning to sing and to love, as expressed in "Do-Re-Mi," "My Favorite Things," and "Sixteen Going on Seventeen."

The story, set in Austria during the rise of the Nazis, combines with its poignant human interest the tense political drama of the Anschluss of Austria in 1938.

The PM & L production has won the applause and acclaim of the audiences and critics who have seen the first three performances. Ken Smouse directs the show and portrays the role of Captain von Trapp. Lynn Zaehler is the choreographer and the orchestra pit is manned by Tracy Teltz on piano and David Rush on percussion. Other featured parts are played by Mary Beth Bentel as Maria, Mary Chris LaKome as Elsa Schraeder, and Tom Hausman as Max Detweiler.

Make your reservation soon for this crowning event of PM & L Season 13.

Water Line Damaged

Responding to complaints of low water pressure, Village Maintenance Dept. workers found Friday morning that telephone lines which control the water well at pump house No. 4 had been cut.

The pump house is located on McMillen Drive, across from Quaker Industries, Inc. The line was cut in two places, and a four-foot piece removed. This occurred during the night or early morning hours, as the pump was in proper working order Thursday evening.

The line crosses McMillen Drive, and according to police was believed to be a service line to Quaker Industries.

Save Energy, Dress Cool

Pardon the pun, but the energy crunch got it in the neck this week when the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce announced support for energy chief John Sawhill's suggestion that business join government in dressing cool by shedding neckties and jackets this summer.

Lester Brann Jr., president of the 19,000-member statewide business organization, said the State Chamber will ask business firms to consider "optional, voluntary guidelines" for dress codes within their operations.

Sawhill recently asked all federal employees to "stay loose" this summer on the theory that if they were more comfortable, they'll be inclined to cut air conditioning by several degrees.

The State Chamber, which has been encouraging and coordinating energy conservation programs among Illinois companies, recommended that executives and employees alike should consider dressing for the higher temperatures.

"For men, possibly abandoning a tie for an open collar may make it seem several degrees cooler," Brann pointed out.

Brann acknowledged that established tradition, protocol and style may keep some businesses from permitting men to dress casual on hot days, and that some restaurants which require ties may not relax their rule.

However, there are many situations in which we spend our workdays not having to meet the public or make official appearances. These might be ideal situations to consider dressing cool.

But, please, no more streaking.

Dr. Petty Steps Down From Office

Dr. W.C. Petty of Antioch has stepped down from the office of president of the Lake County Health Department's board of directors. He is a founding member of the board, and told the members he would "miss the meetings which he has attended since the organization began its work in 1956.

Dr. Petty, who was superintendent of Lake County schools for 40 years, went to Waukegan from Richland County where he began his teaching career. He became county superintendent.

In 1941, he was named to a nine-member commission to study and codify laws pertaining to public schools and public education, and was a member of the evening faculty of Lake Forest College from 1943 through 1953.

In 1960, Dr. Petty organized the Special Education Joint Agreement District for Lake County for the benefit of students who could not be adequately educated in the regular classroom.

Dr. Petty has been the recipient of many honors during his years of service to this area and in 1963 was presented with the Grove School award for his work on behalf of handicapped children.

He explained that he feels like a "king without a crown" after so many years of service, but said he would find some way of helping the community with his new-found freedom.

Edwin L. Oberlo, president of Burgess Vibrocrafters Inc., of Grayslake, has been elected to the post.

A FUNNY THING happened to me down at the corner of Lake and Main the other day. Come to think of it, it wasn't so funny.

"An 85 by your wife," he said. "How would you like to have to live with that?"

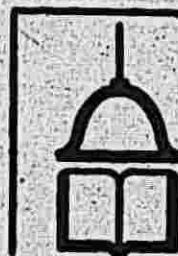

My Democrat friend and my Republican friend got into another argument Tuesday.

"Instead of impeaching the President," said the Democrat, "why not just wash his mouth out with soap?"

"Quit knocking Nixon," snapped the Republican. "Anybody who kept Hubert Humphrey from becoming President of the United States can't be all bad."

But one thing is for sure. The President won't be impeached if removing him from office is anywhere near as difficult as removing his bumper stickers.

Sure hope everybody is in good walking shape for Saturday's Art Fair. Chris tells us there's all kinds of paintings, crafts, etc., and lots of goodies too.

How about that dapper appearance of Frank Warren - he's telling he lost 36 pounds. Wish I had your will power Frank.

Those firemen did it again! - the dance last Saturday evening was a huge success. Everyone was having such a good time that I know had the band stayed, we all would have danced all night. Sure am glad that fella in the red shirt who scared all the pigeons off the top of the water tower didn't fall - or his friend either. Hear tell a "half-streaker" made his appearance during the excitement too.

A lady called in to wish Homer LaPlant a very special happy birthday this year on July 4. Also celebrating their natal day this week are Donna Gutowski, Donna Coffill and David Rush on the 6th, Gail Volling on the 9th and Ed Jahneke on the 10th. Happy birthday everybody!

A very happy anniversary to Glenda and Pete Tomachik and Judy and Ray Kerby who celebrate on July 4.

REMEMBER - help support the Little League this Saturday morning. Have breakfast at their Pancake Breakfast before going up to the Art Fair. The boys are also having a bake sale that morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kufalk have returned from a fabulous 10 days in Florida where they visited Disney World, Busch Gardens and other attractions. Their daughters, Heidi and Heather, went along and now have a lot of exciting things to tell their friends.

Counseling Program Initiated

A Peer Group Counseling Program has been initiated at Antioch Community High School under the direction of Ms. Karhanek and Mr. Lindholm. The counseling involves the training of high school students to function as leaders of groups of students who will have common experiences and apprehensions.

These students are being trained to be co-leaders of peer groups by staff members:

S. Towns, J. Curtis, J. Hebenstreit, W. Goetzelman, M. Wietecha, P. Pekkarinen, F. Waible and G. Collins. Many other students and staff members have volunteered to participate in the program and it is expected to be in full swing next year.

Berning Bill Passes

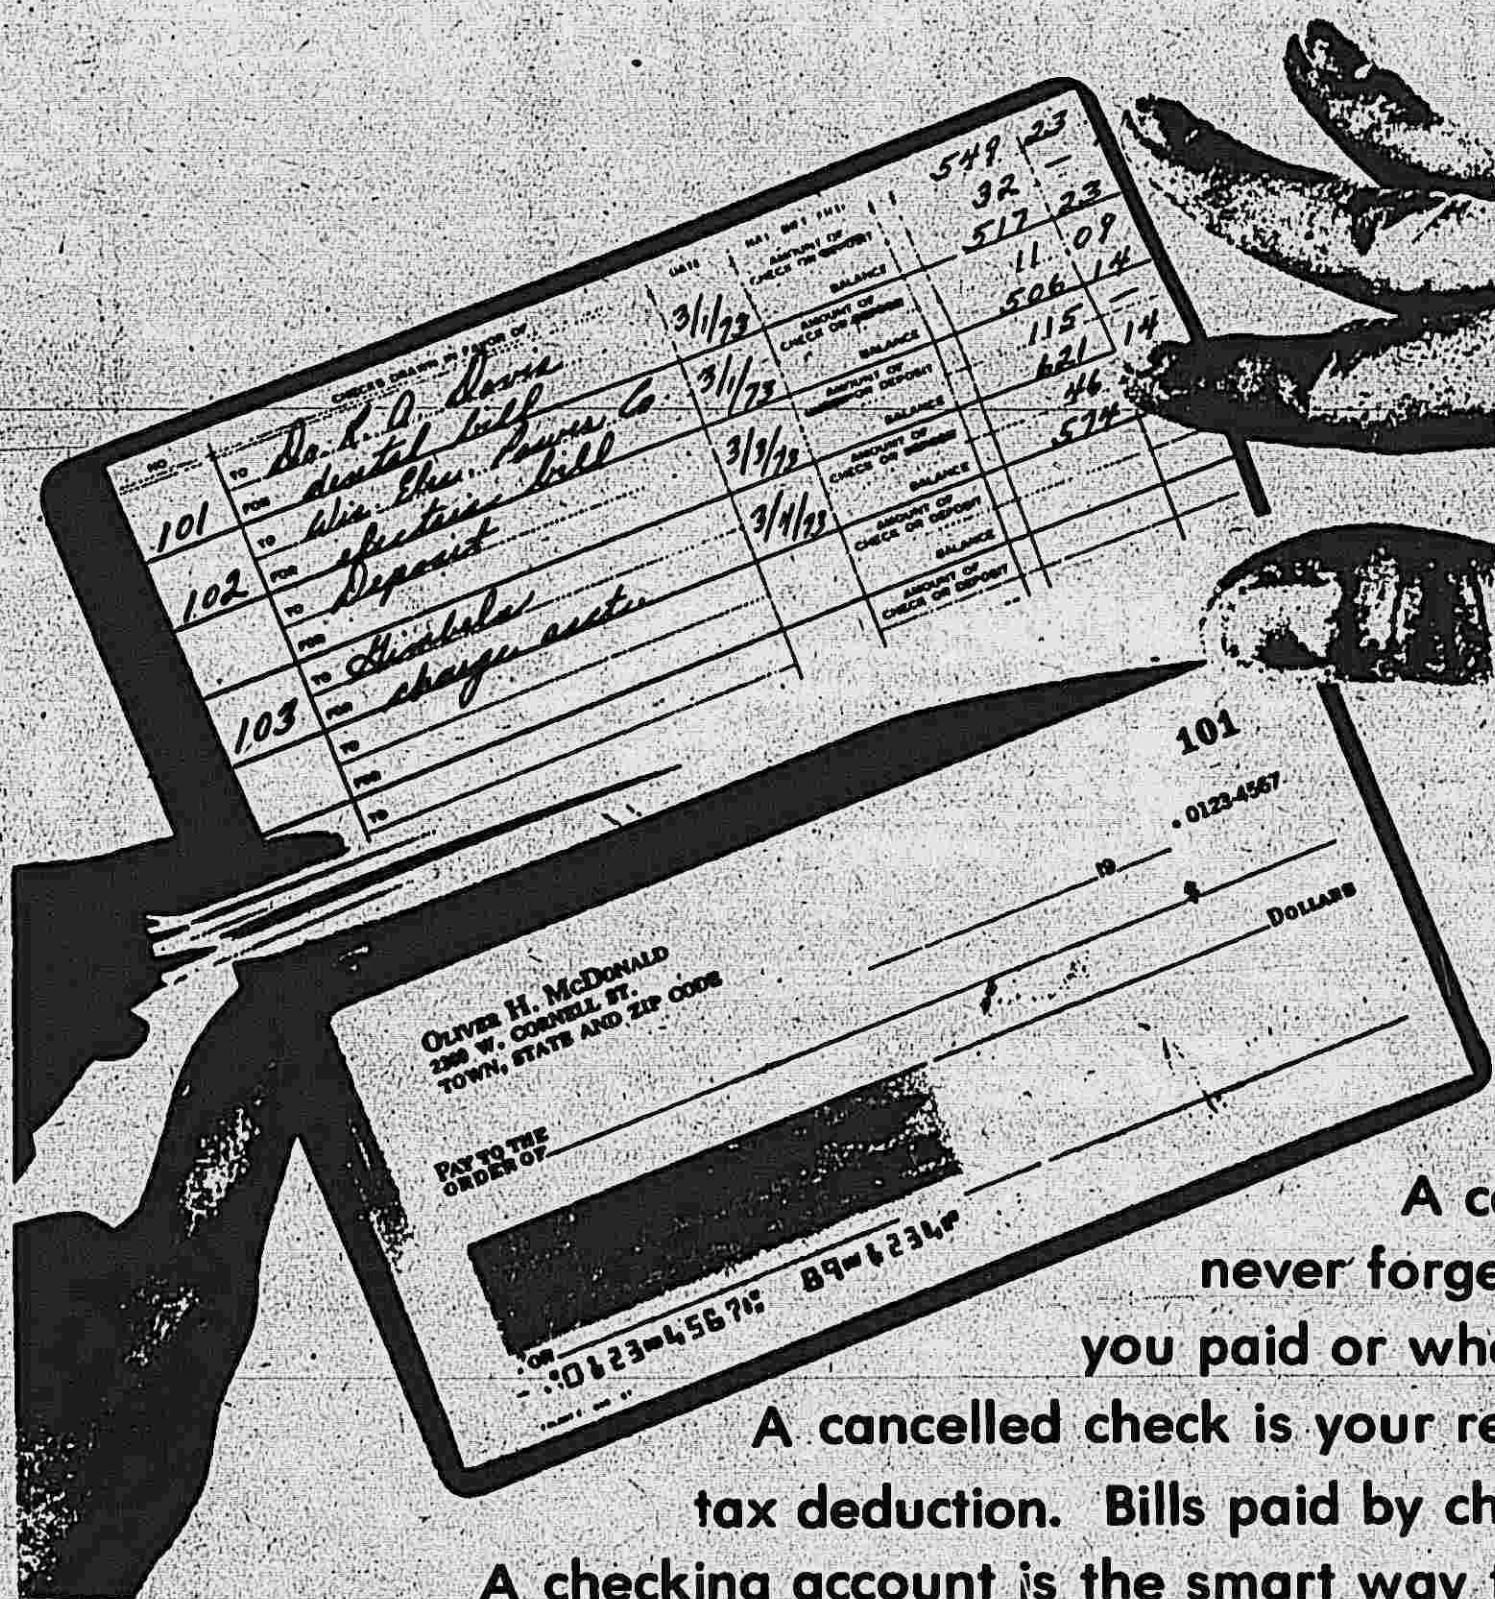

Springfield -- Legislation sponsored by Sen. Karl Berning, R-Deerfield, which would help eliminate serious tax inequities hindering Illinois business firms in border areas of the State has passed the State Senate.

On a vote of 48-0, the Senate approved House Bill 2234 which equalizes the tax on registered or titled items such as motor vehicles, boats and airplanes. The bill earlier passed the House by a vote of 146-0. The bill now goes to the Governor for his action.

Sen. Berning said, "This bill is of particular significance to those of us residing in Lake County and I'm pleased it passed both houses of the Legislature with unanimous support."

Swimmers Off to Good Start

The Antioch Aqua Center's swim team, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, opened their season June 25 with a victory against Lincolnshire. When the final race was over, Antioch emerged the winner with final score of 223-137.

John Schmidt, Jean Cilik, Judy Houghton, John Hund and Dave Berry were all triple winners for Antioch. Adding points for diving were Jean Cilik and Chris Walpole who had solid second place finishes.

In a Saturday morning home meet, the swimmers met Tennaqua in their second test. It was a close meet all the way with the score tied near the end, however the final score was Antioch 182, Tennaqua 192.

Last Saturday Antioch was host to Tennaqua. It was a close meet with the final score Antioch 182, Tennaqua 192. Once again John Schmidt and Dave Berry scored triple wins. Jean Cilik came in second in the 12 and under diving division.

First place winners were: Rick Schulten, Dave Walpole, Cindy Carney, Craig White, Mary Ann Cilik, Chuck Auxier, John Hund, Judy Houghton, Lesley Gallagher, Jean Cilik, Mike Jaworek, Eva Auxier, and Jack Fields.

Who's Next for Liz?

Johnny Carson says he feels sorry for Elizabeth Taylor. At her age, how is she going to find another husband?

Columnist Earl Wilson meanwhile has predicted that the former Mrs. Hilton, Wilding, Todd, Fisher, Burton, inevitably will be linked with a man whose last name begins with O, and that within 18 months she will be married for the sixth time.

That was all the gang at the corner tavern needed to start them guessing.

"That Aristotle Onassis is some kind of a lover boy," said Nick Petropolous, who owns the place. "Of course, all of us Greeks have a way with beautiful women."

"Onassis, molasses," said Nick's wife. "I think Liz is going to marry Peter O'Toole...or maybe Sir Laurence Olivier."

"Nah," said the guy at the bar. "I'll bet it's that Wyatt Earp fella...you know, Hugh O'Brian."

"What kind of nonsense is this?" I said. "You can't put any trust in a columnist's gossip."

"I can't decide," said Nick's wife, "If it's Ryan O'Neal or Donald O'Connor."

"Donald O'Connor, never," said one of the guys. "Carroll O'Connor, maybe."

Mike O'Riley, the bartender, looked worried. "I only hope my wife doesn't find out about this."

"That big mouth Earl Wilson," said Tony Orlando, finishing a beer. "When my wife hears this one, there goes my bowling night."

"Why don't we get up a pool?" said Nick. "We'll each throw in a million dollars and draw a name."

"That's okay with me," said one guy. "But with my luck I'll get Pat O'Brien."

"Count me out," said another. "I've only got a million left and I'm going to buy my wife a diamond ring with it."

"Wait! I know who it is!" said O'Riley. "It's Mrs. Olson's husband. He's tired of her coffee."

Mr. & Mrs. James W. Kopriva, Jr.

Cheryl Ann Crawford and James W. Kopriva, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday, June 22 at St. Peter's Church, Antioch. Rev. Francis Johnson officiated at the afternoon ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lavoid Crawford of Antioch and Dr. and Mrs. James Kopriva, also of Antioch. Lonna Crawford was maid of honor, with Ann Bitzer, Barbara Kopriva and Joellen Zannini serving as bridesmaids.

Gary Peterson was best man; Mark Crawford, Mike Kiley and Tom Edgerton were ushers.

The bride was attired in a dress, designed and sewn by her mother, of ivory quiana trimmed in venetian lace. The veil was hand-made by her mother, also, and attached to a headpiece she had worn at her wedding 23 years ago.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church's social center.

The bride attended the University of Illinois and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The groom is a U of I graduate and a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Upon returning from Spain, the couple will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Kopriva is employed by the Illinois Medical Society.

Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Rick Silianoff

Two Antioch High School graduates were joined together in marriage at St. Peter's Church, Antioch, on July 14. Jacklyn Kay Janssen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Janssen of Troy, Montana, and Gordon Rick Silianoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Silianoff of Antioch, were married in an evening ceremony at the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white cotton eyelet. Maid of honor Pat Rockow, bridesmaid Diane Janssen, sister of the bride, and flower girl Kathy Geist, niece of the groom, wore dress of red and white checked gingham with white eyelet trim.

Kent Barlow of Antioch served as best man, Bill Toman of Antioch was groomsman and Joe Janssen, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

A reception at the Dutchman restaurant followed the service. The couple honeymooned in Florida.

The new Mrs. Silianoff is employed by Illinois Bell. Her husband is a May graduate of Wyoming Technical Institute, and works at the Waukegan Speedway.

PROBING THE FUTURE

by the Editors of
ENGINEERING NEWS-RECORD

NEW YORK (ED)—Taking a look into the future is no longer a mysterious journey. With the survival problems man is facing right now—and the projected problems due to surface in the near future—scientists and engineers are trying to evaluate man's future needs and come up with solutions NOW. Time is of the essence. Though some of the proposals read like science fiction stores, on closer examination they seem to fit exactly into the pattern of man's growing needs. In Probing the Future, a special 100th anniversary issue of Engineering News-Record, McGraw-Hill's construction industry newsweekly, many startling predictions have been brought to the fore by some of the world's most informed citizens.

What are some of these expectations?

- To handle America's projected population growth of 250 million by the year 2000, it is proposed that 100 cities the size of San Francisco will be constructed. These cities may have buildings as high as 200 stories.
- To fulfill housing needs, the single-family home on its own plot will be replaced by row houses built around a commonly held open space. Eventually the formation of high-rise communities made up of mobile homes might take place.

- Urban crowding may be alleviated through multi-use buildings. That is, buildings that house apartments, offices and stores and recreation facilities.
- The transportation of the future could well be high-speed intercity trains. Many more transit systems will be located below the ground. Over the longer term tracked air cushion vehicles, STOLcrafts (short takeoff and landing) and magnetically levitated trains are likely possibilities.

These are only a few of the myriad of proposals being made to handle future problems bound to affect man in every avenue of his life.

Students Enjoy Educational Trip to Nation's Capitol

Seventy-four 7th and 8th grade students from Antioch Upper Grade School recently enjoyed a bus trip to Washington, D.C.

The tour was directed by Mr. David Booth, who was assisted by Mrs. Martha Booth, Mr. Steve Alberts, Mrs. Dee Alberts and Mr. Bob Lipinski.

The first stop was Gettysburg, Pa. After a good night's sleep and a morning swim party, the group toured the battlefields of Gettysburg, wax museum and other points of interest.

In Washington they visited government buildings and memorials. While traveling around the city, tour guides pointed out historical landmarks and facts. The trip was highlighted by an all-day visit to the Smithsonian Institute and a trip to the National Zoo to see the only Panda bears in the country.

At the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts the group was the first in the history of the Center to be allowed in the concert hall while the musicians were rehearsing.

The Antioch students were frequently complimented on their fine behavior and attention, the chaperones said.

In the evening, the youngsters swam in the hotel pool and were treated to a dance with music by a live band.

Grade School Board In Special Meeting

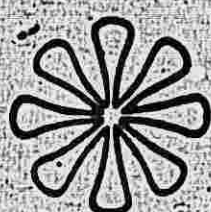

At a special meeting of the Antioch Grade School Board, Tuesday, June 25, the main issue was a discussion of the 1974-75 budget. A number of items were revised with a downward trend.

Teaching contracts were awarded to 12 persons:

In addition, contracts were approved for Michael D. Teeley and Mary Kern, director and co-ordinator of the new Environmental Program approved for Antioch by the government. It is a three-year project and expenses for the program will be paid by the government, provided the board stays within an allotted budget.

Salaries of non-certified personnel were tabled until the next regular meeting of the Board on July 9.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garvin of 602 Highland, Antioch, announce the engagement of their daughter Wendy Sue to Mr. Brian M. Carey, formerly of Bronx, New York.

An August 17th wedding at the Milburn Congregational Church is being planned.

County Fair Coming Up

The Lake County Fair Board and Association invites one and all to visit the 1974 County Fair, July 24-28.

New events and activities join the old favorites in Grayslake, spelling fun for all.

The association will hold the first annual Commercial and Industrial parade on Wednesday, July 24 at 12 noon. Those who desire to participate in the parade contact William Miller, phone 223-5037.

Another first for fair-goers is the viewing of a National Dairy Goat Show, with some of the best animals in North America. Some of the breeders live in Lake County, and their animals will be among the near 800 in the goat barn and tent.

Among the events is the sale of champion steers, swine and sheep, held on Saturday, July 27 at 1 p.m. Competing will be the top winning animals in these livestock breeds.

All young people, ages 8-19, are invited to participate in the special Junior Livestock department, including beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine, sheep and goats. The exhibitor need not be a 4-H club member and can participate in the show on Wednesday, July 24, starting at 2 p.m. Wednesday is also 4-H Club day.

Miss Lake County Fair will be selected from among the applicants to win a $500 scholarship to use at the college of her choice. Applicants must meet the following qualifications: resident of Lake County; single, age 16-20. Entries are due prior to July 15, and must include a snapshot of the applicant. Applications may be sent to the Lake County Farm Bureau, Mr. Richard Raftis.

Gothic Sculptures on Display Here

The Antioch Township Library is now featuring a Gothic Sculpture Display. It was loaned for one month to the Antioch Library by the Northern Illinois Library System.

Between 1100 and 1500 many anonymous European carvers embellished the exteriors and interiors of great cathedrals with their art.

The subjects were mostly religious, such as "Madonna and Child," "Adoration of the Magi," and "Statuette of a Prophet" in this display. Occasionally ordinary townspeople were portrayed as in "Man Seated," and "Figure of a Man."

Not all Gothics sculpture was done for the church building. Wealthy laymen sometimes commissioned pieces for personal use, as the "Gothic Diptych" of this display, which was carved in ivory as a portable devotional piece.

Not all Gothics sculpture was "Little is known about the carvers. Only the charm of their work remains for us to speculate upon and wonder at," said Betty Lu Williams, head librarian.

Wilton Among Mayors Granted 'Knighthood'

More than a dozen mayors of cities in northern Illinois, including Mayor Bob Wilton of Antioch, were granted Honorary Knighthoods in a mass ceremony launching the opening of the Chicago Renaissance Faire in Gurnee.

The Faire, with more than 30,000 persons expected to attend, is being held on four successive weekends through July 21. It is sponsored by the Midwest Art League. More than 80 acres have been converted to an authentic reproduction of the Goode Olde Days of 1450-1650, with all participants clad in the costume of that period.

The list of mayors honored includes Gilbert W. Stiles, Libertyville; Robert C. Wilton, Antioch; Richard A. Welton, Gurnee; Francis E. Anderson, Hometown; Joseph Armondo, Fox Lake; W.A. Skinner, Genoa; Fred Balzer, Lincolnshire; John E. Dianis, Wauconda; Thomas W. Watson, Hickory Hills; Joyce S. Stahl, Darien; Albert D. McCoy, Aurora; and Village President, Ray Banger, Algonquin.

As the Faire progresses, there will be two performance stages for musical productions and cameo scenes, poetry reading, belly dancers, mimes, madrigals and minstrels and three demonstrations daily by the American Foot Jousting Association who will fight with authentic reproductions of weapons used in that period.

In addition to the organized activities, there are nearly 150 exhibit areas where both Renaissance-type food and products will be seen. Other features of the Faire will include archery, chess tournaments, palmists, bagpipers, poets, jugglers, gymnasts and auctions.

The site is on Edwards Road, 1½ miles west of Hunt Club Road.

I saw a butterfly with his wings
outstretched
Fluttering by a flower
Your wings are very colorful

I started to let down a net
He flew down — then I thought to myself
This is part of Nature
I am trying to catch

So I put my hand down
He settled on my hand,
I took him to a flower
He started eating the dew
His wings all red and gold

Special Summer School in Lake Villa

More than 260 elementary school children are enjoying the thrill of learning in a specially developed six-week Summer School program made available by Lake Villa School District No. 41 from June 18th to July 31st. Pupils from the first through seventh grades of the Lake Villa Schools and the Prince of Peace School are looking forward each day to unique educational opportunities which enable them to develop responsibility for the success of the choices and decisions they make.

Mr. Henry Schmidt, Supervising Teacher, with a staff of fourteen teachers and adult aides plus five volunteer student aides, has developed three teams and programs in which the pupils explore the satisfactions of "reading, writing and arithmetic." The overall philosophic concept of the Summer School staff is to help the children realize that learning is exciting and that making a mistake is a natural part of learning provided that the pupil learns a positive lesson from the mistake.

A SURPRISING SOURCE OF ENERGY

Every day you are probably letting enough energy to light your entire home go to waste-if you're like most Americans.

Your household garbage can be converted into energy by a system, new to the U.S., that's been used successfully in other countries for 20 years. One of these Wheelabrator-Von Roll systems is now under construction near Boston to handle 1200 tons of refuse a day without polluting and make steam energy for industry. It also will reclaim metals and other materials for recycling. Even the small amount of ash left-over can be used as clean landfill or high-grade road material.

ENERGY PLANT PROCESS

This refuse-to-energy station will meet the needs of a half million people and produce enough steam energy for a nearby General Electric plant to cut its fuel oil consumption by 73,000 gallons of fuel oil a day! Being put up by a Wheelabrator-Frye Inc. joint venture, the plant meets all federal, state and local environmental standards. No community funds are needed to set-up a plant, for it is financed and operated entirely by private enterprise. This unusual system puts garbage to work-not to waste.

Local Softball Team 3rd in Fast Loop

The Antioch State Bank team is holding down third place in the area's top-rated slowpitch softball league.

The Interstate Classic's seven teams vie on Wednesday nights at Simmons Field in Kenosha.

Tonight, State Bank plays T's Tap of Waukegan at 7 p.m.

The talented league is led by world-famous Tirabassi's of Kenosha with a 6-1 record. Douglas Auto of Racine is second with 5-1 and State Bank third with 4-2.

Most of the teams in the league are regular competitors in national tournaments.

State Bank is managed by Wally Ring of Lindenhurst. His lineup includes such well-known area athletes as Don Pyles of Antioch at third base, Jack Wiech of Mundelein catching, Ken Kube of Trevor pitching, and Lynn Carlson of Antioch in left field.

In a recent 13-10 victory, Carlson led a 20-hit Antioch attack by going 5-for-5.

The State Bank team has been together for several years. The players range in age from 19 to 36 and the average age is about 25.

"It's a pretty evenly-balanced team," says Ring.

Saturday and Sunday the Antioch team will compete in the Geskey tournament at Waukegan's Dugdale and Belvidere parks.

Antioch Boys In Babe Ruth Tournament

Antioch plays Marengo at 1 p.m. Saturday in the opening game of a Babe Ruth baseball tournament at the high school field.

The winner of the game between 14 and 15-year-old stars will return on Sunday at 1 p.m. to play Barrington.

Winner of the Antioch tourney will advance to regional play in Chicago.

Teams are composed of the best players in local leagues.

Driver Has Big Night

Bob Roper moved closer to taking over the Waukegan Speedway late-model super stock car point lead as the ace driver won the 30 lap feature race, the Trophy Dash and finished second in the heat race on Sunday night.

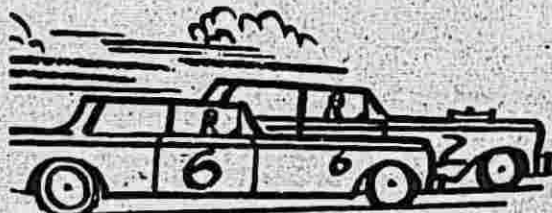

Tom Jones, Northbrook was second followed by fast-time qualifier Bot-Dotter, Chicago. Dave Evans, Crystal Lake was out for two laps following a seven-car pileup on the first lap and although he made it back onto the track following a lengthy stop in the pits, he still finished only 16th.

Warm weather brought out the best of the late model sportsman stock car drivers Saturday night and provided the closest competition so far this season.

It all started in time trials as Ted Richter, Libertyville set fast time and then continued to lower the mark to a final 15.01 second lap in his 1969 Chevelle. Throughout the qualifying trials, Joe Horn, Zion, was also pushing his 1969 Camara faster and faster but never as fast as Richter until Horn's final lap, which cracked the 15 sec and time trial mark with a time of 14.95.

Richter came back to win his heat and then the scene was set for the 25 lap feature with Bill McDonald, Crystal Lake, getting the early lead and holding it for 20 laps before both Richer and Horn shot by to finish one and two. McDonald was third but not too far back.

Harry Stern Wins Shoot

The Lake County Farm Bureau held its 1974 Championship Trap Shoot Sunday at the range west of Antioch.

Harry Stern won the first place trophy and Jim Carlson was second. Both are from Antioch.

Don Jorgenson, Grayslake, tied with Carlson for second place but forfeited that position by not being present for the shoot-off. He was awarded third place.

Stern, Carlson and Jorgenson will lead a 10-man team down to Springfield July 20, where they will represent Lake County in the State Trap-Shooting Championships.

In Central America, gold is believed to have a soul.

This Week in sports

Solsrud Wins at Wilmot

Aaron Solsrud of Menomonee Falls, Wis., won the 25-lap feature event for the IRA Super Modifieds at Kenosha County Speedway Saturday night.

It was Solsrud's first victory of the season at the Wilmot track and gave him enough points to catch season leader Dick Duston, who finished fourth.

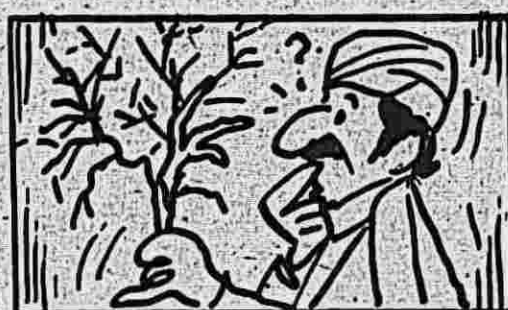

The night was marred by an accident in a heat race when USAC driver Ray Darnell hit another car and rolled over twice. The car was heavily damaged but he escaped injury.

Gordy Mudlaff won the sportsman feature for the second straight week.

The Interstate Racing Association has announced that July will be "Fan Appreciation Month." There will be special discounts and nights of racing action. On Thursday, July 11, the late models will return for their recently rained-out program. Time trials start at 7 p.m. for this show only.

Starting Wednesday night, July 17, there will be racing action at Wilmot for four weeks. Time trials begin at 6:45, racing at 8 p.m. and there will be a Demo Derby on July 17 with $50 to the winner.

The Faces of Evie

Under The Shredded Wheat

By EVALYN ROZEK

My Mother used to worry about me a lot. She didn't seem to think I was very feminine. I guess it had something to do with the way I looked wearing my brother's hand-me-down jeans, plow shoes and tee-shirts. (My favorite one featured a likeness of Sergeant Preston on his horse, ambling through a pine forest.)

She needn't have fretted so. By the time I entered high school, I was an incurable romantic. Looking back, it seems to me that I spent most of my senior year reading poetry beneath a willow tree that grew near the shores of Lake Michigan.

Every few minutes, I'd glance up from my Keats or my Wordsworth or my Elizabeth Barrett Browning to see if The Man of My Dreams was heading my way. (I was certain that this was how things happened.)

Well. We live and learn, don't we?

The great event took place, several years later, in a dimly-lit, smoke-filled room. (In a bar, is what I am trying hard not to say.)

A young man wearing levis and a red tee-shirt walked up to me and inquired,

"Wouldja liketa polka?"

He said it nice and polite. He polkaed rather well. Some time later, we were married.

It turned out that he didn't go for poetry much. His favorite song is "Under The double Eagle." He thinks going out to eat is a complete waste of time and money because "all you're paying for is that fancy wallpaper; you can broil a steak for half the price at home."

Sigh. Where does a woman who would sell her soul to the devil for a dozen long-stemmed roses turn to for romance?

To two little boys who tell her she's pretty. That she smells nice. Who make crepe paper tulips for their Mommy and slip little notes under the door when she is taking a shower.

And who bring her breakfast in bed on Mother's day.

Guess who said this?

1. "The love of God makes all men free."
2. "A kiss on the nose does much to turn aside anger."
3. "I can see, and that is why I can be so happy in what you call the dark, but which to me is golden. I can see a God-made world, not a man-made world."
4. "Some grief can take care of itself, but to get the full value of a joy you need someone to divide it with."
5. "Eighty per cent of our criminals come from unsympathetic homes."

Easier to read than to skip.

Some people believe that "hot cross buns" will keep for a year without becoming moldy, and hang them up for good luck!

"Oh, to be a child again, when all you had to do to lose weight was to wash off the dirt!"

Last Mother's Day was unforgettable. The menu consisted of shredded wheat, peanut butter toast, a twinkie, a banana, several oreo cookies and a package of Fritos. I washed all this down with approximately 14 ounces of Hawaiian Punch.

"Wow," I said to my husband, who was in a state of semi-sleep, "I won't be able to eat another thing until Tuesday."

"Good," he muttered. "That means I don't have to take you out to dinner today."

...It took him six shampoos to get the shredded wheat out of his hair.

Illinois citizens, young and old, are warned not to use firecrackers or any other dangerous fireworks to celebrate the nation's Independence Day by the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness.

In the past, despite the State's ban on fireworks, too many have been smuggled into Illinois from other States and in exploding have caused serious eye injuries and blindness, said Edgar T. Britton, executive director of the 58-year-old non-profit organization.

More people have been killed in fireworks accidents during this century alone than were killed in the Revolutionary War which the Fourth of July celebrates, Britton said.

EMBLEM OF AUTHORITY -- The Rt. Rev. Augustine Schmitz, O.S.B., receives the pastoral staff from Milwaukee Roman Catholic archbishop William E. Cousins during ceremonies at which Abbot Augustine was blessed as third abbot of St. Benedict's Abbey, Benet Lake, Wis. The pastoral staff is a sign of the abbot's jurisdiction over the 47 Benedictine monks who belong to the abbey. At left is Brother David Barfknecht, O.S.B., and second front left is Rev. Frederick Rosing, O.S.B.

St. Benedict's Has New Abbot

The Rev. Augustine Schmitz was blessed third abbot of St. Benedict's Abbey at Benet Lake, Wis., last week.

The ceremonies were held on Tuesday night during a Mass in the abbey church. The Most Rev. William Cousins, archbishop of Milwaukee officiated.

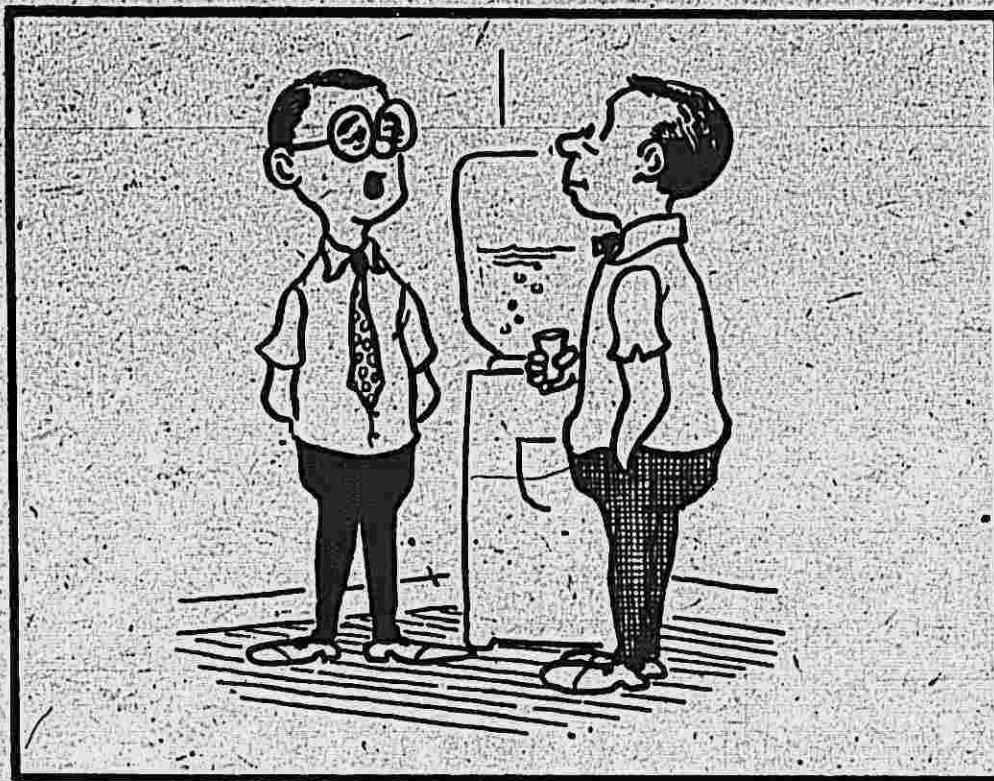

Abbot Augustine succeeds the Rt. Rev. Andrew Garber, who announced his resignation in April.

Since joining the Benedictine Order, Abbot Augustine has held posts as prior and rector of the seminary.

The blessing of an abbot is a traditional rite of the Roman Catholic Church. The worshipping community of Christian believers gathers at the blessing to pray that the new abbot will receive the grace of God necessary to carry out his new office.

In our day this rite has been revised to reflect a more contemporary spirit and understanding of the position and duties of an abbot in his monastery. The present rite of blessing was approved by Pope Paul in 1970 and this was the fifth time the rite has been conferred in the Milwaukee archdiocese.

BOTTLE COLLECTORS VISIT ANTIOCH -- Officials of the International Association of Jim Beam Bottle and Specialty Club visited Antioch last week and one of the attractions was Bill Georgeson's collection at The World Famous Village Pub. The fourth bottle from the left, with the Indian Head, was made in commemoration of Antioch's 75th anniversary in 1967. Behind the bar (from left) are Dave Nissen, designer of the decanters; Bill Georgeson; Lillian Reimers of San Mateo, California, executive secretary of the club; Paul Saroff of San Francisco, international president, and Angelo Aggelopoulos of Joliet, district director.

Bottles Made in Antioch Are Collector's Items

There are tens of thousands of people around the world collecting the Jim Beam whiskey decanters that are made in Antioch.

They are known as the Jim Beam Bottle & Specialty Club and their president, Paul Saroff, lives in San Francisco.

Saroff and other officers were in Antioch last week to visit the Regal China Co., where the decanters are made. Regal China is owned by the James B. Beam Distilling Co. of Chicago and Claremont, Ky.

One of the collectors is Bill Georgeson, owner of Antioch's World Famous Village Pub. His personal collection totals almost 200 of the attractive decanters, which are made for special purposes only. A limited number are produced, then the mold is broken and the decanters become collector's items.

One, for example, was specially designed for Antioch's 75th anniversary in 1967. Some of the proceeds went towards the Aqua Center.

The originator and designer of the decanters is a local man, Dave Nissen. He estimates that some of his collector's items are worth $2,500 and more. He designed his first bottle 20 years ago and has produced about 375 since that time.

They are so unique and attractive that at least 73 local clubs and tens of thousands of persons are now collecting them.

ANTIOCH SAVINGS PAYS THE HIGHEST RATES

AS PERMITTED BY THE FEDERAL REGULATIONS

Four types of savings certificates to choose from:

7.90% effective annual yield on 7.50% per year
Minimum deposit $5,000 Maturity is 4 years.

7.08% effective annual yield on 6.75% per year
Minimum deposit $2,500 Maturity is 2 1/2 years.

6.81% effective annual yield on 6.50% per year
Minimum deposit $1,000 Maturity is 1 year.

6.002% effective annual yield on 5.75% per year
Minimum deposit $1,000 Maturity is 6 months.

Now you can get any of our savings certificates - all giving you the highest possible yield in each category. The difference in interest rates is determined by the length of the maturity. Whichever certificate you choose, you will earn the maximum rate permitted by law. No other financial institution can offer you higher rates.

All interest is guaranteed too - no ups and downs in the money market can affect these high earnings! Note: Federal law and regulation prohibit the payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the regular passbook savings deposit rate. Because Antioch Savings pays the highest permissible passbook savings rate of 5 1/4% per annum the early withdrawal penalty on a new certificate account is less than the required penalty imposed by commercial banks on similar accounts.

Passbook Savings Accounts pay 5 1/4% per annum, compounded daily, paid quarterly. You decide when to save ... how much to save ... and you withdraw the same way, with no restrictions. That's the great advantage of a passbook account - the best way ever invented to save toward your goals. Annual compounded yield 5.39%.
